BREXIT: Where now for European Real Estate?

29th June 2016 | New York | 8:30 – 12:30

European Real Estate Investment Outlook 2016:

What are the market implications of the UK BREXIT? What is the outlook for investment opportunities, risks and capital flows?

PropertyEU is pleased to invite you as our guest to the European Real Estate Briefing in New York. Timed to give US investors an early briefing on the impact of the UK BREXIT. Leading investment specialists from key markets in Europe and the US provide valuable insights and intelligence on the impact of BREXIT, investment outlook, macro economy and politics, market trends, sectors, countries, risks and opportunities. Will we see break up of the EU? What does it mean for markets? A time-efficient, focused briefing on European real estate markets and US/Europe capital flows
